

Sandra Molinas DDS, MA

(917) 885-4714 – drsandramolinas@gmail.com

CURRENT POSITIONS

Dental Resident Instructor (10/14- Present)

Mount Sinai Hospital, New York, NY

- Supervise, instruct and lecture dental residents

Dental Resident Instructor (09/13- Present)

St. Barnabas Hospital, Bronx, NY

- Supervise, instruct and lecture dental residents
- Continuing Education Coordinator for Attendings
- QI project Coordinator

PRIOR EMPLOYMENT/WORK EXPERIENCES

Dentist (06/11 – 11/14)

Periodontics Private Office, Bronx, NY

- Provided for over 250 patients a range of periodontal therapy, implants, periodontal surgery, etc.

Dentist, Periodontal Associate (08/94 - 11/14)

Office of Dr. Steven Oken, Bronx, NY

- Served as a full-time associate, worked on all phases of periodontal therapy, actively promoted and supported the whole body

Dentist, Periodontics (01/94 - 12/01)

Office of Dr. Robert Convissar – General Dentist, New York, NY

- Worked closely with general dentist as an in-house periodontist to provide optimal periodontal health for patients
- One of the first dentists to utilize lasers in periodontal therapy (beginning in 1994)

Dentist (09/89 - 12/93)

Office of Dr. Alvin Grayson, Development Recare System Prosthodontics Office, New York, NY

- Worked full-time while enrolled at Columbia University's Periodontal Program
- Organized and implemented hygiene program for over 500 patients

Head Lab Instructor for Head and Neck Embryology (09/91- 05/92)

Columbia School of Oral and Dental Medicine, New York, New York

- Taught the lab portion of Head and Neck Development course for 60 students

POST GRADUATE EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Columbia School of Oral and Dental Medicine, New York, NY

- 3i Implant Certification, June 2000
- Certificate in Periodontics, May 1993
- Noble Implant Certification, June 1992

EDUCATION

Columbia University

Master of Science in Microbiology, May 1993

Thesis on "The Role of Anti-biotic resistance in Periodontal Disease", 1992

Columbia School of Dental & Oral Medicine

Doctor of Dental Surgery, May 1989

Honors: Research Award for thesis on "The Role of Macrophages in Periodontal Disease", 1989

Barnard College

Bachelor of Arts in Biopsychology, May 1985

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

Congregation Beth Aharon, Bronx, NY

Board Member, January 1998 – Present

Riverdale Jewish Center, Bronx, NY

Board Member, January 2013 – Present

ADDITIONAL

Dental Licensures: New York (Active)

Clinical Expertise: Periodontal Therapy (All Phases); Implant Placement & Therapy; Laser to Adjunct Periodontal Therapy; over 200 patients per year (1994-present)

Professional Society General Membership: Bronx County Dental Society (2000-Present); Westchester Implant Study Club (2007-Present); Northeast Association of Periodontics (2007-Present); Riverdale Dental Study Group (2012-Present)

Languages: Spanish (fluent; speaking, reading and writing)

Interests: Avid Antique collector and dog lover (labradoodle owner)

